VIII. LIST OF DEALERS in North America (See Part 5 Section VIII for dealers outside North America)

VIII. LIST OF DEALERS

The following list of magic dealers is compiled from the contributions of readers of alt.magic. Some are listed by company name and others by the proprietor's name. The WWW links have been tested as of April 01, 2002 and invalid links were deleted. New links should be advised to the "keeper".

Comments, appearing in (parentheses) after the dealer's name, represent the opinion of the contributor, or information provided by the company; in some cases they have been edited for brevity.

Deb Martin

My husband, magician Taylor Martin, is encouraging me to expand my sewing services to include customization of magicians' garments, such as adding topits to ready-made jackets. If clients would like to send me their jacket by mail, I can make arrangements with them for delivery.

I've had my custom sewing business for over five years, and have been sewing for over 30 years. I belong to the American Sewing Guild, the Home Sewing Association, and a local group Sewing Professionals Network.

I would prefer for security's sake to use the internet for communication with prospective clients.

(There are larger stores, but its hard to beat these guys. If they know you are a magician and are interested in a trick they will let you in on the secret. After all, to be honest, if you are in the community (magic) you are bound to eventually find someone who has purchased the same thing and will eventually find out the inner workings. BUT, you might see something that just blows your socks off, go and buy it THEN find out it is beyond your abilities. At least this way, you have the chance to 'test drive' it to see if it is something you really want.)

(A small mail order business and a web site. It is all Mentalism and 90% of what I sell is my own effects which were in my shows. Now being retired I started this business after we moved to Virginia. I have a video on the market that is my lecture. It is available in both VHS & DVD.

I except PayPal and Money Orders or Checks.

I teach Mentalism at my home and have a group that meets here once a month on the second Tuesday at 7:30. I'm more than happy to talk to anyone that has questions about Mentalism or others effects not my own if I know them.)

The shop sponsors monthly meetings with lectures, etc. by magicians such as Dan Tong and George Schindler. Irv makes a lot of his items, is a consummate performer, and has a lot of great tips on performance. If he knows of a better method for a given effect even if it's less expensive than the gimmick you may be examining he tells you.)

effects, I have worked hard to broaden my scope. I made Lance Burton's
Water Fountain Production, Rick Thomas's Dove Production Cage, Jay Owenhouse's Rose Bush, and silks for the Kalin & Jinger Carnival of Wonders show. I have handpainted silks for David Seebach and Arden James. I have made Dale Salwak's silks for years. I am known for my restoration work for various Magic Collectors. So my scope is much more than that of "Flower Fakir" as Gene Gordon called me.)

the customer's needs and proficiency level rather than just push stuff indiscriminately. Strong emphasis on magic, few novelties, no fake dog-doo, no inflatable women etc. Some juggling equipment.)

Makers of eye-poppingly beautiful, highest grade apparatus (with prices to match) in every category, from Morrison Pill Boxes to the largest and most exotic illusions. Direct successors to Thayer and Merv Taylor, in unbroken succession for 90 years. A magnet for working pros building big shows.
Best turned wood apparatus, flawless 15" tubular linking rings (they ring like anvils), and on and on. Unlike some other manufacturers of exotic magic, Owen's stuff works! Much of their smaller magic is sold mail order (they do not wholesale), but there is a modest sized, beautiful showroom.
Custom magic built to order, phone for appointment. It's a good idea to phone ahead anyway, since Azusa is 20 minutes east of Los Angeles.
Open Saturdays by appointment. Their catalog retails for $32 softbound or $75 hardbound)

They have an excellent mag-a-log that is sent out 6 times a year featuring unique items along with feature stories and interviews with magical celebrity - highly recommended.

Magalogos are free with active purchases or available for $7.50 for two years, ($15 Internationally). They also were one of the early pioneer's in magic video tapes and own The Greater Magic Video Library range of instructional videos/dvd's featuring some of the greatest magicians (many of whom are unfortunately no longer with us), from the 20th Century. Stevens Magic Emporium was the original creator of the World Magic Seminar held each year in Las Vegas co-sponsored with Siegfried & Roy, and Lance Burton.)
